THE RALEIGH NEWS

VOL. XIV—NO. 72. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 21, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

THE Blue Ridge Blade argues that resumption means an increase in our interest-bearing debt and in consequence an increase of taxation. "Mr. Tilden's plan of resuming by using rigid economy in expense and by never saying when he would resume, was in our opinion far more sensible than this Congressional whip and spur treatment of an honest beast badly foundered in the bog financial."

THE Chicago Commercial Convention indorsed two of the great projects in which the South is vitally interested, to wit: the railroad through Texas to the Pacific Ocean, and the proposed steamship connection with South America. The formal designation of the Texas Pacific Railway Company as the one to which Congress should "grant material aid," very clearly indicates that the West is favorable to this line, and by combined effort this winter the bill now pending in the House of Representatives can be pushed through. As to the other project, the establishment of direct steamship service with South America, it will be remembered that it was defeated by the arbitrary action of Speaker Randall. The trick resorted to defeat the manifest will of Congress in this matter was denounced by Congressman Waddell in stinging words on the floor of the House.

Notwithstanding the apparent steadiness with which the British money market in general weathered the late gale from Glasgow, all the advices from England indicate that a slow panic—the very worst of panics in the long run—has set in, not only as regards the United Kingdom, but, with the exception of Canada, through the British empire. The cry of distress is not loud, but it is deep, and comes up not from one but from every avenue of effort and every channel of endeavor. From the looms and spindles of Lancashire to the wheat fields of Kent; from the ship-yards on the Clyde to the forges in South Wales, and from the cutlery shops of Sheffield to the silk weaveries of Spitalfields, there is one monotonous complaint of too little market and too much stock on hand; of too great first cost and too small selling prices; of land rents too high and wages too low. And this melancholy picture of stagnation and decline is without a solitary tint of relief, or, if there is such a tint, the London press, though scanning the expanse with anxious eye, is unable to detect it.

ENGLISH politicians are experimenting with our caucus system. A committee, similar to our nominating conventions is organized and all candidates are required to pledge themselves to submit to its action. Mr. Glads one seems to be at the head of this movement.

He says that the conservative party is made up of homogeneous elements, and that it is kept so well in hand that a seat is rarely lost through the appearance of superfluous candidates. The Liberal party, on the other hand, is made up of men of every variety of opinion, some of whom are little disposed to acknowledge allegiance to the organization. Thus in strong liberal districts the candidates put in the field sometimes outnumber the seats to be filled, and the Conservatives contrive to slip in candidates on a minority vote.

A few years hence, perhaps, we shall hear of Gladstone "bolting" the caucus. And like an eminent statesman on this side of the big water, we will next hear from him some such talk as this.

According to party usage nominating committees have the right to select candidates for Parliament.

"I have no desire to oppose the free exercise of that party right, nor shall I oppose them in the due exercise of their power."

And Alexander Stephens says a caucus is good enough when it is fairly done.

The Democracy and the Greenbackers.

Boston Herald.

The more the Democratic party fosters this Greenback lunacy, the larger number of votes to lose in 1880. Its only true policy is to stamp it out at the start and stand by Democratic principles. Secondly, the attitude and behavior of a certain class of people in South, especially in South Carolina, who call themselves Democrats, is the worst possible thing for the Democratic party, because it makes Republican votes in the great, free, populous and prosperous North. The Democratic dog has allowed the tail to wag it too long. It never can win until the dog wags the tail. In other words, the real Democratic leaders—like Bayard, Abbott, Kernan, Lamar, Hampton and Gordon—must lead the party, and not be content to sit down on the Constitution and wait for it to return from a wild goose chase after idiotic votes.

The Fight Against the Silver Dollar.

Washington Post.

In view of the hard fight for life on which the National banking system will soon enter, the folly of the banks in making war on the standard silver dollar is especially prominent. No law was ever enacted with more earnest popular support than the law recreating this coin. The banks which propose to degrade it are defying a power that they would do much better to conciliate—a power capable of destroying them as effectually as it swept the anti silver movement out of its path.

"White Indians."

The agent of the Shoshone and Bannock agency, in his report for November, after speaking of the arrest of several Indian thieves, says: "The tables are turned, and, instead of Indians, white men are committing nearly all the crimes and misdemeanors on the border. Since the subjugation of the Sioux and Cheyennes, white Indians have been a terror to life and property in that region."

YELLOW FEVER.

Cause and Origin of the Plague—Report of the Special Commission.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The report of the yellow fever commission, composed of Drs. Bemis, Cochran and Howard, who together with Col. L. P. Harden, have been investigating the epidemic in all the fever-stricken cities of the South, states that a sufficient amount of testimony has been taken to justify the belief that the first cases in New Orleans, about the month of June, were brought to that city by conveyances as yet unknown. That their investigations and maps show that the fever invariably tends to range itself in groups of cases in marked contrast, with a tendency to malarial fever, to occur in separate disconnected cases. They say in respect to sanitary condition of the towns visited: "We have to report the same character of neglect and violation of the laws of health, common to all or nearly all inland towns in the United States. These are: neglect of drainage, inattention to deposit of fetid and refuse animal and vegetable matter, and inattention to the purity of drinking water." The commission unanimously agree in statating the following facts in regard to their investigation up to the present time, reserving the right to introduce at any subsequent time, such antagonistic facts as may be discovered. First, "we have not, in a sanitary instance, found a case of yellow fever which we could justifiably consider as of de novo origin, or indigenous to its locality. Second, in respect to the most of the various towns which we visited and which were points of epidemic prevalence, testimony showing the importation was direct and convincing in its character. Third, the transmission of yellow fever between points separated by any considerable distances, appeared to be wholly due to human intercourse. In some instances the poison was carried in clothing or about the person of people going from infected districts. In other instances it was conveyed by such means as cotton bagging or other goods of the same description. Fourth, the weight of testimony is very pronounced against the further use of disinfectants. Physicians in infected towns, almost without exception, state that they are useless agents to arrest the spread of yellow fever, while some of them are firm that their vapors are seriously prejudicial to the sick. Fifth, personal prophylaxis, by means of drugs or other therapeutic means, has proved a constant failure. A respectable number of physicians think the use of small doses of quinine of some use in its prevention. Sixth, Quarantine established with such degree of surveilance and rigor that non intercourse is the result, has effectively, without exception, protected its subjects from attacks of yellow fever."

The Latest from the Capital.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The annual report of General O. O. Howard, commanding the Department of the Columbia, has been received at the War Department. He gives a circumstantial account of the campaign against the hostile Indians last summer, all of whom surrendered except a small number, who escaped beyond the limits of the Department.

The sub-committee of the House committee on expenditures in the State Department, which was to have resumed the taking of testimony to-day concerning the investigation of the Shanghai Consulate, and the charges against Minister Seward, of China, have postponed their meeting until Tuesday next, Chairman Springer being the only member present.

The House Committee on Appropriations, which was to have met this week, is still without a quorum.

The Secretary of the Treasury is unable to respond favorably to the appeals for readmission to this country, duty free, of the pictures sent hence to the Paris exhibition. These pictures had paid customs duties when first imported, and their owners find they cannot have them returned without again paying duties.

A Cool Assassin.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A despatch from Rome to the Times, says Passananto, the would-be assassin of King Humbert, manifested the most perfect unconcern and assurance while being examined. It is evident that he had calmly meditated the commission of the act, and fully made up his mind to the consequences. At one point in the examination, when the magistrate expressed his horror at the deed the prisoner had attempted, the latter said: "It seems to me you are getting too excited." On being asked if he had not observed that the people would have torn him to pieces but for the police, he replied: "People are fools; they always act that way." To a question as to whether he had intended to kill the king, or merely to wound him, he answered: "My intention was to finish him." He said he was neither an internationalist nor a socialist; that he did not know the meaning of those words, but he failed to satisfactorily account for an internationalist work found in his possession. The king will confer the Collar of the Annunziata upon Signor Cairoli.

Shere Ali Replies to the British Ultimatum.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Central News says: An important dispatch from India, which we have reason to believe is Shere Ali's reply to the Viceroy's Ultimatum, was received yesterday at the India office in London. The Indian Council was immediately summoned, and the result of the conference will be laid before the Cabinet this afternoon.

Appalling Distress of English Mechanics.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Appalling distress and destitution exist among the mechanics and laborers of Sheffield, in consequence of the business depression. Hundreds are living in tenements without clothing or furniture, which they have been forced to sell to procure food. They are without fuel and dependent upon the charity of their neighbors for subsistence. The mayor has called a public meeting to devise measures of relief.

A Nolle Prosequi.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 20.—A nolle pros has been entered in the case of George C. Ellison, late Chief Engineer in the House of Representatives, who was indicted for the murder of David Smalls 2 years ago.

Prussia's Financial Distress.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Nov., 29.—At the opening of the Prussian parliament yesterday, Count Stalberg Wennigerode, Vice Chancellor, said the Government relied upon the co-operation of the Chambers for the removal of financial difficulties. Last year's surplus, he said, would be almost entirely required to cover the recent contributions of Prussia towards the German Exchequer. The interest on the public debt would likewise be considerably increased; and there are other unavoidable expense. Unless our interests are to be neglected, he said, retrenchment was almost impossible. The influx of large sums from extraordinary sources has ceased, while the ordinary and regular revenue is suffering from continued depression. Trade does not allow us to count upon any sensible addition to previous figures. The revenue is insufficient to cover the ordinary and regular expenditures of State. Means required to amend this state of things are to be found in the taxes and imports handed over to Germany. Expenditures will have to be partly defrayed by loans.

The Times' Berlin despatch says the deficit is stated to exceed seventeen million marks and but for the last remnant of the French indemnity being distributed in 1876, it would have occurred then by the steady increase of military Expenditures, accompanied by a decrease in direct taxes and proceeds from Government railways, mines and forests. The exact figures of the deficit are still unknown, but the total result strangely contrasts with the gratifying aspect of the Prussian budget for so many years past.

A Married Woman Murders her Rival.

By Telegraph to the News.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20.—A special dispatch says Mrs. Catherine Stull, who was suspected of the murder of the widow Best, at Port Washington, last week, was yesterday arrested and placed in jail. She has confessed the crime. It seems that her husband had been united to her for many years and had been, it is alleged, criminally intimate with Mrs. Best. The prisoner stated that she sent a decoy letter on the night of the murder and then met the victim at a haystack on a hill, where with a club she beat her to death. Mrs. Stull is the mother of seven children, one of whom, three months old, she has in jail with her.

Don't Know, or Won't Tell.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK—Late this afternoon the chief of police stated he had no knowledge of the recovery of the body of Stewart, nor any clue. Inspector Murray was not to be found, but the other officials united with the Superintendent in reiterating their opinion that the stories appearing in cer ain afternoon papers are purely sensational. The Superintendent also says that Duffy, Creslin and Edwards, who were arrested by headquarter detectives, are not suspected of the Stewart robbery.

Committee on Army Reorganization.

S. Army, is now in session at the 5th Avenue hotel, completing the work which they began last summer at the White Sulphur Springs. The father was burned to a crisp. The son revived and rushed into the street, where his burning clothes were extinguished, after severe injuries had been inflicted.

Items from Forsythe.

Correspondence of the News.

WINSTON, Nov. 18.

We are having quite an exciting time over religious topics at present. Several weeks ago a protracted meeting was carried on for weeks in the M. E. Church. Then, for a much longer period a meeting of the same kind was conducted in the Methodist Protestant Church.

Last week a young and fluent Christian or Campbellite minister drew a large audience to Tise's Hall, where he held them spell-bound by his fluent forensic ability. He is still conducting his meetings with equal zeal.

This week a series of meetings are to be held in the Presbyterian Church.

Last Saturday Mrs. Moore, of the Society of Friends, at the solicitation of the Y. M. C. A., began a series of meetings in the M. E. Church, and to-night (Monday) all Winston is in a stir. She, assisted by females of her sect, is drawing enormous crowds, and her most feeling and touching appeals and discourses are awakening an extensive religious feeling. From present appearances a regular Moody and Sankey revival is foreshadowed. We hop the good work may continue to go on.e

The strike of the Pittsburg (Pa.) glassblowers took place at the close of work Saturday evening, and fifteen hundred men left the works, declaring they would not return until sent for on their own terms. This will cause the suspension of every glass house in the city.

One Effect of Gold at Par.

The Baltimore Gazette argues that after the first of January, high prices will be the consequence of specie resumption and gold inflation. It says: "Prices will go up because there will be two hundred million of dollars of gold now idle which will be practically remonetized by resumption, and this two hundred millions must be used. But there will be no hurry to get rid of it for fear of its depreciation. The rise in prices, therefore, will not be sudden, but gradual and steady, until they reach the point of equilibrium with the enlarged volume of money. This rise in prices would be inevitable even if prices were now at their normal condition; but there are reasons for believing that they are unnaturally low, due to the unprecedented magnitude of the crops during the last few years. Not during thirty years has the cost of articles of prime necessity been so low. Flour, bacon, corn, sugar, coffee and clothing are at the minimum and these drag other values down. Any change ought to advance prices, and it is more than probable that the business of the next few months will be conducted upon rising markets." The poor man will catch it, as usual, unless his means of purchasing advance with the advance in prices.

Resumption.

New York Times.

The near approach of the day fixed for the formal resumption of specie payment increases popular interest in that event, and stimulates public curiosity as to the methods that will be adopted by the national authorities to maintain it. The fact that there exist upon the statute books certain technical obstacles to a full and free operation of the Resumption act, gives alarm to many earnest advocates of specie payment, and doubts are expressed in various quarters as to the ability of the Secretary of the Treasury to maintain, for any long period, the equivalency of gold and legal tenders. Congress may disappoint the hopes of the country by declining to enact laws of an affirmative character to assist and strengthen the President and Secretary of the Treasury in maintaing resumption, but public sentiment will deter that body from attempting to pass laws to bind the hands of those officers by supplementing existing laws with clogs and hindrances to the positive mandate of the Resumption act. Substantially, specie payment is already resumed, and we simply await the coming of the 1st day of January to declare formally that the Treasury of the United States is prepared to fulfill the promise made by the Government to the people to redeem its outstanding demand notes in coin,

Half Married.

Cincinnati Commercial.

A town in Indiana was, a day or two ago, the scene of a funny attempt at a wedding. In that locality lives Melissa Underwood, the fair daughter of an honest and respectable old farmer. Two young men, one P. H. Donovan, a farmer, the other Wm. Ayres, a miller, were paying court to the fair Melissa. She could not decide which one to favor, having promised each one to marry him, but finally being wooed more ardently by Ayres, she consented to take him if it could be kept secret from Donovan. Ayres came to this city, secured a license and the necessary outfit, and on Wednesday, in company with Wm. Selzer, a Justice of the Peace of this place, proceeded to the Underwood farm. The bridal party were on the floor, and the Squire had nearly finished the job, when Donovan, to the surprise of every one, rushed in and declared that the ceremony should proceed no further. Donovan grabbed the girl by the waist and exclaimed, in piteous accents, "Oh, Melisa, don't you consent, for you promised me first." Ayres had her around the neck, and yelled in stentorian tones, "Go on, 'Squire, we are half married now; finish up the job." The Magistrate, under the circumstances, refused to proceed, and Ayres, although half married, is no better off than he was before, and Donovan is disconsolate.

The Leader for the South to Follow.

General Joe Johnston to an interviewer.

I will venture to say that the attitude of the gentlemen in Congress from the Southern States will be such as to disappoint the irreconciliables of the opposition, who have, I see, already begun an effort to array a solid North against a solid South. We will probably have little to say in reply to radicals of this stamp. Our acts will speak more emphatically for us. Sectionalism was killed last Tuesday, and long before 1880 the "solid South" and the "solid North" will be forgotten terms. The people of the South have known for thirteen years that the war was at an end, but these long-range Radicals and latter-day warriors cannot, seemingly, be brought to a realization of this fact. The revival of the charges that it is our settled policy to saddle the war debt of the confederacy upon the country is absurb—contemptibly so—and it passes my comprehension how any intelligent reader can receive such reckless inventions with patience.

Amusements in Durham.

Correspondence of the News.

Miss Bonnie Meyer, a charming little actress, supported by Thorne's Comedy Company, completed a four nights engagement in our place Tuesday evening. Miss Meyer combines the talents of actress and vocalist, and won a host of admirers, while Mr. Thorne, the comedian, was simply huge in all his parts, numerous and varied as they were. Messrs. Carroll and Ray rendered their respective roles becomingly and deserve special mention. We commend the Troupe to the amusement lovers of our sister towns.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give an Oyster Supper this (Wednesday) evening.

Let us Have Light.

Philadelphia Times.

It is only a little while before the President will present his annual message. The announcement is made that he will improve the occasion to tell just what his position is upon the Southern question, which everybody will be glad to hear; but it might be quite as important if he, or somebody who knows as much as a President, if not more, would let the public know what the Southern question is, anyway.

An Unsuccessful Mission.

Philadelphia Times.

Mr. Dennis Kearney, who came all the way from California to run things in the East, particularly in Massachusetts, on a high-pressure plan of his own, has given up the job. He will go back to San Francisco, but the bleaching wreck of his unparalleled conceit is strewn all over the eastern portion of the Union, so to say. He has nothing but his profanity left; and a peculiar and select lot of profanity which nobody wanted. He hasn't hung a lecherous, thieving bondholder; he hasn't killed a Chinaman; he hasn't waded knee deep in blood to inaugurate Ben Butler; he hasn't even trampled under foot a slimy imp of an editor. The untamed Kearney simply had the awful misfortune to find that the average workingman in the East knew a great deal more than he did, who refused to be terrorized by the apparition of a giant monopoly of Chinese washermen.

England Bent on Conquest.

N. Y. Star.

While the relations between Russia and England have, during the past week, assumed a much more pacific complexion, and events have given reason for the hope that European peace will be preserved, it is understood the Afghan war will be prosecuted and that the first advance of the English troops will be made within the next new days. The time given the Ameer to reply to the British ultimatum expired yesterday. The advice of some of the best military authorities is strongly against an advance being made until next spring, but political considerations and the urgent appeals of the Indian Government have overridden these opinions. The object of the winter campaign will be the seizure of Cabul, Candahar and Herat, and it is said in governmental circles that the permanent occupation and annexation of at least one-half of Afghanistan is resolved upon.

How England Loses in Investments.

N. Y. Tribune.

The total amount of money raised in London for foreign states during the last ½ century has been something like 614,000,000 pounds. Of this, 157,000,000 or twenty-six per cent, is in entire default. The bankrupt states are Turkey, Peru, Mexico, Venezuela, Honduras, Costa Rica, Paraguay, the Confederate States, Uruguay, Greece, Bolivia, Ecuador, San Domingo, Gautemala, and Liberia. The loans in partial default amount to 175,000,000 pounds, or thirty per cent. Spain owes 109,000,000. That country has so lost credit that the chances of her paying her loans is about on a par with Turkey. The Egyptian loan is in better repute just now, and it is believed that the Khedive will keep his engaments. The loans, then, in entire or partial default amount to 332,000,000, or 54 per cent of the total raised.

Four of the five principals are in custody, but the leader remains uncaptured.

Adieu to Sectionalism.

Philadelphia Times.

The New York Times has got down to the solution of the failure of the Republicans to carry Congress. It points out how they could have easily elected ten Republicans in the South with half the effort they wasted on the foolish cry for a solid North. Before another important election comes around, both North and South will have settled down inexorably against any sectional issue, and will unite to destroy any leader or any party that seeks to renew sectional strife.

A Great New Oil Well.

The News says of one speaker: "With mouth full of the fat, his words were peculiarly rich, penetrating every stomach in the house."

GUILFORD—Charlotte Observer: An attempt of peculiar atrocity was made to set fire to Vanstory's livery stables, in Greensboro, night before last, which, but for the active vigilance of the chief of police, would have caused a conflagration, the result of which cannot be imagined. The incendiary is one Daniel Cable, who was put in jail.

BEAUFORT—Washington Press: The sweet potato yield in this county is unprecedented. They sell for a mere nominal price in our market, twenty cents per bushel being outside figures for choice varieties....Redding Jackson and John McKeel, white, engaged in a fight, which resulted in the probably fatal cutting of the latter with a pocket knife. Both were intoxicated. ....There are five negro men confined in the jail, three of whom are under indictment for capital offences; murder, rape and burglary....On last Wednesday night the inmates of the county jail made a desperate effort at a jail delivery, and but for the timely awakening of Augustus Respess, would in a little while have succeeded.

MECKLENBURG—Charlotte Observer: The Assembly Tuesday night gave another delightful German, complimentary to the young ladies visiting the city....Pelham Morrow fell with a scaffold from a chimney, but was not seriously injured.....A distressed white woman, whose husband has deserted her and gone to Texas, wandered on the streets, telling a pitiful story. She was sent to her old home, Salisbury, heart broken....It is now definitely settled that next Thursday, the 28th, Thanksgiving day, is to be observed in Charlotte as a general holiday. In addition to the closing up of banks, depots, etc., the leading merchants of the city—all who have been applies to—have agreed to close their places of business, and suspend entirely for the day.

Regulation of the Greenback Issue.

The Chicago Times, which is undoubtedly the ablest advocate of sound finance in the Western States, in discussing the action of the new York banks in regard to silver coins, declares that they should even go a step further in the direction they have indicated. They are aware that under a law passed last June the Secretary is required to return greenbacks to circulation as fast as he redeems them, They must knew that it may prove to be impossible to keep gold in circulation without diminishing the volume of paper. If this proves to be the case, they should not hesitate to take the requisite action. Since the Secretary cannot reduce the volume of notes they should take that work upon themselves. They should regulate their own issues by the course of the foreign exchange, so as to prevent the withdrawal of gold from circulation. They should voluntarily make provision for the redemption of their own notes in coin, because in that way they can best regulate the volume of paper. This may require some sacrifice, but the gain of a sound currency system will be worth it all.

Affairs in Alabama.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

The annual message of Governor Houston, of Alabama, which has just been transmitted to the two houses of the General Assembly, is an elaborate and well-considered document. It is full of valuable information upon such subjects as concern the material interests of the State. It sets out, very properly, with a return of sincere thanks to those noble and generous people, both North and South, who so freely contributed to the relief and comfort of the yellow fever sufferers. It congratulates the entire country upon the fact that "Government bacon" will no longer carry elections in Alabama, and upon the additional fact that the time has passed when armed soldiers of the Federal Government can enter and eject from the Legislative halls of the State the legally elected representatives of the people.

Alabama's Senator.

Philadelphia Times.

The Democratic Legislature of Alabama, which was elected in August, has commenced to States Senate. The event is not as exciting as it was six years ago, when Spencer was alleged to have been elected; two Legislatures in one town are calculated to stir up things. It will hardly be possible for the present contest to turn out a more undesirable Senator than Spencer, although it ought to make a wonderful improvement without much effort.

Moses Allen, a colored murderer of Glasscock county, Ga., who was hanged November 1st, had a decided eye to the main chance, and sold his body to a medical student, who paid a debt of his for $10 a fortnight before the execution, and gave a bill of sale of his carcass.

How foolish are the endeavors of parties to introduce new remedies for coughs and kindred complaints when they should know that the people will have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and nothing else.

They all Know It.

That W. E. Dupree's is the best place to go to in Raleigh to buy the most goods for the least money. He has in store and is daily receiving, a large stock of groceries, dry goods, ready made clothing, boots and shoes. You will always find at W. E. Dupree's, No. 2, Adams Building, Raleigh, N. C., everything you need at rock bottom prices to suit the times.

By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grand Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction, not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management.

DAILY NEWS

THURSDAY,.....NOVEMBER, 21 1878

ORGAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The News Building, No. 6, Martin Stree

AMNESTY expires with the present Fall circuit of the United States court. After the term of the court at Charlotte in December "moonshiners" and "blockaders" will be without "the benefit of clergy.

A DEMOCRAT in Raleigh was asked yesterday if he would sign a letter asking Vance "whether he would abide the action of the caucus." "No, I'll be d—og if I do" was the reply. "If in the whole length and breadth of the State there is a Democrat that does'nt know, he is a d—euced idiot."—[Exit the letter man.]

SENATOR Gordon won a brilliant victory over the political "moonshiners" in the Georgia Legislature. A man with the courage to oppose his nomination could not be found in the entire Legislature. Evidently he is the Zeb Vance of the Empire State. The Constitution eloquently remarks:

"The history of Georgia politics will not show a more unanimous triumph than the one achieved by General Gordon. The State was ablaze for Gordon. Candidates for the Legislature found no nearer road to success than in declaring for him, and in many of the counties the candidates were forced to declare themselves on this issue. We do not think that in a single instance a candidate hostile to General Gordon was elected, if that fact was known before the election. He has a hold on the popular heart that is almost if not entirely unprecedented."

Senator Merrimon's Letter.

Senator Merrimon's letter has attracted some attention. The Charlotte Observer says the answer is no answer at all: "The letter is a clear evasion of the question, and not an ingenious evasion either."

It inspires the Wilmington Sun to say, that "it must be understood that all claims by Democrats for the Senatorship are to be submitted to caucus. And that it must be distinctly understood and the fact not made contingent on any man's mere assertion that injustice has been done to him, or the asseverations of his friends that he has not been fairly dealt with—that no Democrat who goes into that caucus is to "bolt" on any ground whatever."

As an answer "the letter is not couched in as plain terms as it might have been," but "it will do" the Wilmington Review says.

Reflection confuses the mind of the Observer. It is possible that a casual reader of the letter might infer that he would go into caucus when he admits that "the Democratic members of the Legislature have the right to select the Senator," and that he has "no desire to oppose the free exercise of that right;" but that impression goes glimmering when we read—

I have neither said nor done anything at any time in the past, that contravenes the purpose here expressed.

And this clinches it:

I am sensible of the rectitude of my intentions and conduct through the whole course of my political life.

"In other words it was right for him to have bolted in '72, and it will be right for him to kick out of the party traces in '79. This is the plain inference from his language. It will bear no other construction."

The gravity of the situation affects the Observer:

"It is high time that those who love the Democratic party, its principles and usages, and hope for its perpetuation, should look this matter squarely in the face and in the light of it ask themselves seriously, Whither are we drifting? The answer is plain. If a premium is to be put upon disorganization, the party in the whole State will go the way of the first and third districts. The people cannot make up their minds too early as to what position they and their representatives should take in such an emergency as is now upon us. And first of all things remember that if disorgauization is fostered or tolerated in the Legislature, consistency demands that it should not be denounced elsewhere. Those who find no fault with the bolting candidate for Senator, must not in future complain of the independent candidate who appeals directly to the people for their votes and seeks thus to disrupt the party.

Alfred M. Waddell.

His defeat is deplored. His manhood should be emulated. Urged to contest the election in the Third District he addresses his constituents in these manly words:

"If there should be satisfactory evidence of fraud, violence or intimidation whereby the result of the election was unfairly and falsely secured it, would be a very plain duty to my constituents and myself to contest it. No such allegation, however, has yet been made, and, in my opinion, cannot be be truthfully made against any portion of the people of this District. I believe the election was free from corruption, as every previous one in the District has been; and, so believing (notwithstanding any mere technical defects) honor, fair dealing and respect for what must be taken to be the will of the people, forbid any attempt on my part to defeat that will, by a resort to legal quibbles, and reliance upon the fact that a majority of those who would decide the contest are my political associates. We see it constantly predicted that the Democrats, having learned a lesson from the Republicans, will "feed them out of the same spoon." God forbid! For eight years I have been denouncing the crimes committed by the Republican party in connection with that birth-right of the people the elective franchise, and it would be a pitiable conclusion to such denunciation if it should result in an imitation of such offenses. * * * If the people so will they can have good or bad government Their will is ascertained at the ballot-box, and only there. They can abdicate their rights by refusing or neglecting to vote, and if they do so, who shall complain? In such a case, if evil ensue (and it is not too late), they can remedy it at the next election—but the proper time for a contest is while the polls are open, not after they are closed and the result declared. Holding these views, I shall not contest Judge Russell's right to a seat in the forty-sixth Congress.

THE STATE PRESS.

Ex-Senator S. M. Finger, of Catawba, has had some valuable experience in trying to redeem our public school system from reproach and obloquy. He formulates his views in a brief letter to the Charlotte Observer:

"I am glad," he says, "that you are calling attention to the great importance of improving the public schools of the State. In my opinion what is specially needed is more money, and the modification of the present system to the extent of providing a county superintendent and county normal school. These would have been made by the last Assembly if its members had not entered the plea of poverty.

If the next Assembly will provide twice the amount of money now appropriated, and also engraft upon the system the county superintendent and county normal school, after the plan contemplated by a bill introduced in the last Senate, the public education of the State will be well provided for, and the Assembly will deserve the thanks of the people."

THE South-Land is published monthly at Charlotte by Dawson & Co., in the interest of Southern immigration. It is a yankee enterprise, but the sort of yankee enterprise we like. The publishers are Yankees, but are the sort of Yankees every honest man can take by the hand. The South-Land speaks of our section, our climate, our people in a way that moves our Southern heart to say, "welcome brother."

Conceding to Mr. Davis ability, earnest labor and splendid personal character, the Hillsboro Recorder says, "It would be unjust to withold from other gentlemen in the District that acknowledgment of service so generously and unstintedly given. If John Manning, if W. R. Cox, rivals for the nomination had nursed their grievances and sullenly kept silence; if John Morning and Fab Busbee had moodily bided their own time, then we would have had no spectacle of an aroused people and an animated contest, sparing the State the humiliation of another defeat.

The Greenville Express is justly indignant over the election in the 1st and 2nd Districts. It is with shame and mortification that it writes down the defeat of the gallant Yeates and Waddell, but justice demands that the world shall know that Pitt county did its full duty in the election, almost polling her full vote. Beaufort, Martin and Washington did their duty, also.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.
COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled
1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Wilmington & Weldon Railroad--Election of Directors.

Wilmington Sun.

The Stockholders of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad held their Forty-third annual meeting at the office of the President on Tuesday. Frederick Phillips, of Tarboro, was appointed President, and J. W. Thompson of Wilmington, Secretary. The committee reported 4,364 shares represented in person, and 7,565 by proxies, making 11,929 shares of the capital stock of the company. The President then read his annual report, which was received and adopted. The reports of the Superintendent, Treasuer and Auditor were submitted.

The meeting proceeded to the reelection of President, when the Hon. R. R Bridgers was re-elected unanimously.

A Board of Directors was next balloted for, when the following named gentlemen were elected to serve for the ensuing year, namely; W T Walters, B. F. F. Newcomer, S M Shoemaker and T C Jenkins, from Baltimore and Messrs. A J DeRossett, Donald McRae, and George Harriss, of Wilmigton, Hon. George Howard, of Tarboro, E. B. Borden, of Goldsboro, and W. H. Willard, of Raleigh.

The President called the attention of the stockholders to the fact that about $650,000 of the bonded debt held in Europe will become due in 1881.

It was resolved that the next annual meeting of the company be held in the city of Wilmington on the first Tuesday after the third Monday in November, 1879.

It was resolved that the chairman appoint three stockholders to audit the books and accounts of the company and report at the next meeting.

The Bigamy Cases Against Mormons.

Washington Post

The argument in one of the Mormon cases has been concluded before the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Biddle, counsel for Reynolds, the plaintiff in error, contended that the federal government has no right to interfere with the purely domestic relations of the inhabitants of a State or Territory; that it is not the custodian of the morals of the country, and can no more rightfully prescribe a certain form of marriage than it can instruct parents in their duties and relations to their children. Bigamy, he urged, or polygamy, is not an offense under the common law; it is an artificial crime created by legislative enactment, and involving when practiced as a religious duty, no moral guilt. He denied the right of Congress to make it a crime, and closed with an appeal to the court to do strict justice to the prisoner, however obscure he might be as an individual, and "however austerely they might personally regard the marital relations into which he had entered."

The Oxus Turned Into the Caspian Sea.

London Pall Mall Gazette.

The announcement is made that the Oxus has been returned to its old bed by the destruction of a huge dam which stood within three or four days' march of Khiva. If this startling news be true it must be concluded that the detachments alleged on so many occasions to have been sent out with a view of determining the question of the old bed of the river were really dispatched with that view. It does not, of course follow, even if the river had been brought back to its old course, that the stream would be navigable from the Caspian upward. Apart, however, from the question of navigation, the conversion of the Oxus into its ancient channel would bring water into a steppe of sand and enable the Russians to march from Krasnovodsk to Khiva by a route not more than three hundred and sixty miles in length across a desert which they have hitherto, for want of water, been unable to traverse in any large force.

Shall Lent be Observed.

The Reformed Episcopal Church is now agitating the propriety of doing away with the observance of Lent as a church fast. The ground on which this change is urged is, that the increased indulgence in worldly pleasures before and after Lent more then counterbalances all the benefits supposed to be derived from the enforced abstention during the season of fasting.

A Public Convenience.

The new plan of registering thirdclass mail matter has proved successful, extending the trade of retail merchants in the larger cities and giving the customers in the towns and villages nearly equal advantages in trade with city people. The mails are cheaper and quite as rapid in delivery as the express companies, and the merchants can almost afford to prepay the postage when a silk dress can be registered at the post-office for 25 cents.

Mistakes of Moses.

Washington Post.

Colonel Ingersoll has been touring through the West, criticising the "mistakes of Moses" in a manner that indicates very little respect for the deceased, and but slight regard for the feelings of his surviving friends. It is probably true that Moses did not entirely avoid "mistakes," but there are few men who, in such trials as he encountered, would have done better. And besides it ought to be considered, in mitigation of censure, that Moses lived and governed long before Grant and the Christian statesmen had given to the world a perfect model of human government.

A Priest Shoots a Man.

Washington Post.

Father R. H. McGuire, a Catholic priest at this place, last Sunday, fatally shot his sexton and usher, named Muldowney, mistaking him for a burglar. The priest was unwell and in bed, and Muldowney entered and went up to his room in the dark. McGuire asked twice "Who is there" without eliciting any reply. He then said "Tell me your name, or I will shoot." No reply came and he shot three or four times, when Muldowney gasped, Father, you have shot me." The priest was immediately overwhelmed at his act. He gave bond in the sum of $5,000, and went to lay the case before the Bishop. Muldowney was the city marshal.

Sensible Old Horace.

Philadelphia Record.

It is quite evident at this day that Horace Greeley was right when he uttered the anomalous aphorism that "the only way to resume is to resume." His point was that all the people desired was to know that greenbacks were redeemable in coin, and then they would not need the coin—on the principle of the savings bank depositor, who, learning the bank had failed, demanded his money, but upon its being tendered to him said: "If you have it, I don't want it; but if you haven't it, I want it."

HOME REMEDY.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.
FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

(Registered.)
A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father-Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. — wrote to Mrs Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain, Very respectfully,
T. J. STOKES.
Louisburg, N. C., May 22, '78.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL Co., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,
Respectfully your friend,
MRS. H. T. BROWN.
Sept. 26. 1878,

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,
WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicans met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.
I am, respectfully,
JAMES A. MORRIS.
KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except at out two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.
Very truly and respectfully.

The State Auditor yesterday received from Alpheus Cooke, Register of Deeds of Granville county, the following abstract of listed taxables:

A few days ago, as Albert Lassiter, of Elevation township, Johnston county, was ploughing in his field, he stepped in his bare feet upon a nest containing 38 highland moccasins, which his ploughshare turned up. He killed all the reptiles and carried them home as trophies. They had settled themselves for a winter's rest.

The Blackwell-McElwee Trade Mark Case.

Some days ago the News published a statement that the long contested case as to the right to use the Durham bull as a trade mark had been definitely settled in the court of last resort in such cases. W. H. Bailey, of counsel for McElwee, says that his client still has an appeal from the decision referred to, to the Commissioner of Patents. In justice to both parties in the contest this is published at the request of counsel for McElwee.

Methodist Festival.

The ladies of the congregation of the Edenton Street Methodist church will this evening inaugurate the festival season by giving an elegant entertainment at Metropolitan Hall. They will provide visitors with edibles of all varieties, which will be served up in tempting style. A speciality will be oysters cooked in various styles. ### Marriage.

At the early hour of 7:30 yesterday morning, Mr. Clement C. Clawson was united in matrimony to Miss Lillie D. Ruth. The ceremony, which was strictly private, was performed at the house of Mr. W. H. Dood, on Hillsboro Avenue, by Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D. A select number of friends of the parties were assembled. The attendants on the couple were: Mr. Frank Womble and Miss Mary Hicks, Mr. Frank Heartt and Miss Bessie Litchford. Messrs. Charles Newcomb, Thomas Partin, Samuel Norris and H. Crocker, ushers. The brief ceremony concluded, the happy pair left the city for New York. Mr. Clawson's numerous friends here wish him all possible happiness in his new life.

The Capitol Square.

The walks of this square have recently been greatly improved, by a liberal use of the rake and roller. Work continues and it is intended to put all the walks in good condition. The square is in some places very barren of trees, the great oaks having been destroyed by the storm of 1877. Last Spring a number of trees, of different species, were set out, but owing to the lateness of the season, (they were planted in March,) but few lived. Next month some twenty-five handsome white oaks will be set out. These are to be carefully selected, and will be from 15 to 20 feet high and of beautiful shapes.

Strange Accident.

A rather strange accident occurred near Smithfield, Johnston county, a day or two since, to William Riley. He was turkey hunting on horseback, and riding up in gunshot of a number of turkeys, dismounted and fired at them. He held the horse by the bridle and the animal, frightened by the report of the gun, ran away, throwing the unlucky sportsmen to the ground and breaking the fingers of one hand, which held the bridle. ### The Primary Cause of a Distant Symptom.

Nervousness is rarely a disease in itself inherent, but is the final offspring of dyspepsia in a majority of cases. The nervous disturbance is at first trifling, but ultimately its parent so undermines the general health as to produce consequences very threatening to that great nervous centre, the brain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the most powerful medicinal opponent of the ravages of indigestion, and protects the nervous system from them. The tremors, the unnatural anxiety, the headaches, the sleeplessness and loss of appetite which characterizes digestive irregularity and weakness, and which are almost invariably accompanied by an uncertain condition of the bowels and inactivity of the liver, are all eradicated by this matchless corrective and when nervousness does not proceed from the cause designated it affords most grateful relief.

FOR UPWARDS OF THIRTY YEARS MRS WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup has been used for children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. No drawings have ever been postponed, and Prizes have always been cashed, without deduction, on presentation. We also desire to call particular attention to the fact that all correspondence with our firm is strictly private and confidential, and that we will not, under any circumstances, publish the names of persons drawing Capital Prizes for the purpose of drawing custom to our lottery.
